CLIMATE ASSESSMENT RESPONSE COMMITTEE TO MEET

LINCOLN - Bobbie Kriz-Wickham, assistant director of the Nebraska Department of Agriculture, has scheduled a meeting of the Climate Assessment Response Committee (CARC) for Friday, March 28. The meeting will begin at 10:00 a.m. in Room 901 at Hardin Hall on the University of Nebraska-Lincoln East Campus.

Climate officials will brief CARC members on existing, as well as predicted, weather conditions and provide a water availability outlook. Mitigation activities will be discussed.

For more details, call the Nebraska Department of Agriculture at (402) 471-2341.
